Part X, Line 2:

CI is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by CI in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. CI's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years respectively, after they are filed.

Part XI, Line 2d - Other Adjustments:

Special events expense 28,031.

Part XII, Line 2d - Other Adjustments:

Form 990, Schedule I

A handful of Community Initiatives' fiscally sponsored projects make grants. Each program designs review criteria before announcing its program. It then reviews applications for funding. These applications are reviewed by impartial, qualified decisionmakers. Grants are awarded through a written grant agreement which details the terms and reporting requirements. Each project monitors its grant awards through periodic reports and follow-up with awardees. Community Initiatives' accounting team tracks and reports on matching requirements, where full benefits(health, dental, vision, life insurance). These services were provided to about 344 employees. For an additional 409 independent contractors we filed 1099s and provided EDD reporting.

In the area of Grants Management, CI managed the philanthropic relationships of our projects with roughly 325 institutional donors. CI received more than 7,500 gifts, operated a website for its projects through which donations were made, and provided a process for receipt of stock donations. We also tracked the interim and final reporting on grants received and provided financial and programmatic oversight for these grants.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

After the draft Form 990 is prepared, it is reviewed by the Board of Directors and Senior Management. Then the final Form 990 is distributed to all board members for their review and comment before filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

At the board meeting during which a new director is elected, he/she is asked to sign the conflict of interest policy forms prepared by our attorney. At the annual meeting in January, all directors update their forms for the following year.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The independent board of directors, in executive session, annually reviews the performance of its CEO and approves changes in compensation which are compared against data for similar positions in the nonprofit sector. They then instruct the director of human resources to implement changes. This deliberation is recorded in the minutes of the meeting and filed with its corporate documents.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The organization discloses its financial data upon request during regular business hours and when appropriate staff is available. An annual report is published which includes a summary of the independent audit. This report is widely distributed and is available on our website and upon request to the general public.
